

DAY 1

Jennifer enjoys an IRN BRU, a popular soda in Scotland, it tastes like pumpkin spice and is considered similar to Mountain Dew here in the US. We had lunch at the cafe at the Bannockburn battle site in Stirling. The Scots victory over the English at Bannockburn in the 1314 and subsequent Scottish independence, made possible the Scottish Reformation.

It's a busy tourist day at Stirling Castle in Scotland.

Stirling Castle is an iconic royal palace and stronghold, seen to represent Scottish independence and a focal point for many of the most important events in Scotland's history. Its imposing position and impressive architecture help make it one of Scotland's grandest castles

ANOTHER DAY

This cockerel was placed on the spire of St John's Church in Perth, Scotland in 510 CE. It was recently restored and will be returned to its rightful place in a short while. Of course, the cockerel is a potent Christian symbol. Jennifer was struck by how modern it appears.

ANOTHER DAY IN SCOTLAND

